Stretching for the Finish Line

The winter Olympics in Pyeongchang, Korea have closed. Like many of you I stayed up late pulling for American athletes—especially Indiana’s own Nick Goepper—to excel. In the process I’ve learned a lot about sports I knew nothing about like Curling. One of the most exciting events to watch was an incredibly close Biathlon in which the leaders stretched at the finish line to get their boot across first for the Gold Medal.

The Apostle Paul had the same kind of courage and determination. In the face of incredible hardships (read 2 Corinthians 11:24-31 for what he endured) he never gave up.

At the end of his life Paul says, “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. ⁸ And now the prize awaits me-- the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.”

I recently learned that Billy Graham finished his race at the age of 99. He impacted millions of lives with the Gospel of Salvation. A recent episode of The Crown showed his influence on Queen Elizabeth. My life was profoundly shaped by an international evangelism training event Graham and his organization put on in Amsterdam in 2000. I don’t think heaven hands out gold medals. But certainly Graham deserves one.

German Madrazo of Mexico finished dead last in the 15 kilometer cross country ski event in Pyeongchang. He came in 116th place, a full 26 minutes after the Gold Medal was won.

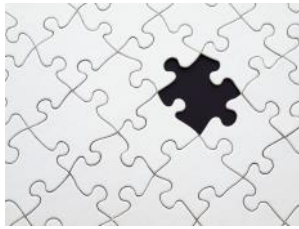

When Madrazo reached the finish line he was welcomed by his cheering friends and rivals from other warm weather countries including Colombia, Tonga, Morocco and Portugal. They handed him the Mexican flag and then lifted him on their shoulders to celebrate.

The Apostle Paul, Billy Graham, and others who have finished their race are now cheering for us. It is our time to carry the banner. It is our time to tell others the good news of Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. My prayer is that you and I will be tenacious in pursuing the prize. It’s time for us to stretch for the finish line.

Blessings and peace,
Pastor Beth Ann

The Finance Corner

Don't Be the Missing Piece

You still have time to register for the Leadership Retreat on Saturday, March 10th. This is going to be a great day of fellowship and planning for the future! Registration forms are on the Welcome Table or you can call the church office.

For the first time in a couple years, our checking account ended in the red for the month of January - - and February also ended in the red. Giving has decreased to the point that a special Finance Meeting has been called for March 6 to, as Pastor phrased it, "realign the budget."

We would remind the Committees of the guideline adopted by the Finance Committee October 21, 2015 which is as follows: "Any non-Trustee expenditure not budgeted needs approval of Finance Committee before purchase." Please note that no Committee is spending wildly out of control - it's just that giving is WAY DOWN - hence our monthly Budget is not being met/financed.

There could possibly be the thought that since we were the recipient of the $100,000 Endowment we aren't in need of the normal tithes and offerings. Nothing could be further from the truth. It is not our intent to tap into that for normal operating expenses, but rather find ways to utilize those funds to propel us into the future.

We would welcome two things: first your prayers concerning our financial situation, and second any offerings you might feel led to give.

Your Co-Chairs,
Deb Binford and Scott Schafer

March Books of the Month

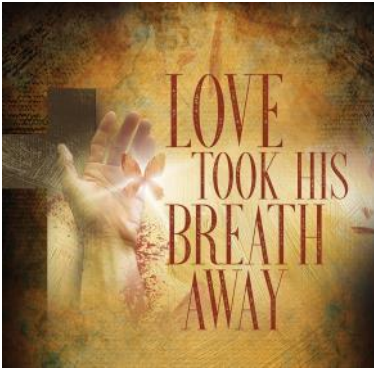

Love God Love People by Shane Bishop is a collection of stories that comprise our lives. Stories help us remember, infuse meaning and convey the pain and exhilaration found in the seemingly unremarkable act of daily living.

A Firm Foundation— Hope and vision for a New Methodist Future- This Wesleyan Covenant Association resource explores what it means to remain faithful disciples in the theological tradition of historic Methodism in our day and time.

Little Children's Ministry

Little Children's Ministry News

March 2018

Little Children's Ministry has lots of events approaching in the next couple of months. In March, we will be focusing on Easter. Nicole is preparing Chapel stories, projects, and lessons for the entire month of March. This will instill the true meaning of Easter in the minds and hearts of all of our little ones. We will be closed on Good Friday in observance of the Easter holiday.

Since candy bar sales started in February, we decided to postpone our February mission of collecting items for the Humane Society until March. Ms. Angel, a preschool teacher, is organizing the event. Her unique proposal is to have a bake sale which will raise items and money for animals in need. We would greatly appreciate LCM and FirstChurch families to bring in baked goods to be sold on Thursday, March 22nd and Friday, March 23rd. A picture of an animal from the Cass County Humane Society will be placed on each item. These items will be priced between $1-3 OR an item (such as a bag of dog food, cat food, kitty litter, etc.) can be donated to receive a baked item of your choice. All proceeds will go to the Cass County Humane Society. The children are also participating in this event. Toddlers will be making cat toys and preschool will be making dog treats. This mission compliments the February Bible Verse, "A friend loves at all times..." Proverbs 17:17 (NIV)

Pastor Beth Ann is planning on hosting LCM Sunday on Sunday, April 29, during first service beginning at 8:15 AM. This will be a special Sunday that recognizes the staff of LCM. We are hoping to have the children who are attending LCM sing during the service. We will provide more details at a later date.

The "Project Playground" fund is well on the way to its $15,000 goal! We began 2018 with $3,000 from previous fundraisers. Candy bar sales were a huge success! The exact figure for candy bar sales will not be available until March 5; however, we have estimated a profit of $4,000. Thank you to everyone who participated! Special thanks goes to a church member that donated $100 for the playground fund and a $100 donation from Joy Circle! The children and staff are very excited for the new equipment!

The Indiana Early Childhood Education Conference will be held on April 7. Twelve staff members have volunteered to attend this year's conference. This gives our staff the opportunity to receive 6 ½ hours of training. It is a wonderful conference that offers classes with a variety of subjects for different ages from newborn to 12 years old. We are excited to attend again this year!

Mission: Collect items for the Humane Society
